THE GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY

SEAL OF THE COLUMBIAN COLLEGE

In 1819, the Reverend Luther Rice, Obadiah B. Brown, Spencer H. Cone, and Enoch Reynolds (all Baptist ministers) set in motion the reality of a college in the District. These men raised the needed funds to purchase land in the nation's capital, petitioned the Congress for a charter, and began organizing a college.

On February 9, 1821, President James Monroe signed the Act of Congress which created the College. By design of the Congress, a special provision was included which required that "persons of every religious denomination shall be capable of being elected Trustees; nor shall any person, either as President, Professor, Tutor or pupil, be refused admittance, or denied any of the privileges, immunities, or advantages thereof, for or on account of his sentiments in matters of religion."

The original seal was designed by James Peale in 1821, at the time of the founding of the Columbian College. This is the seal that the graduates are wearing today as medals. The seal features a Biblical lion lying down with a lamb and Greek text in an open book. The Greek translates to "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God."

In 1873, the name Columbian College was changed to Columbian University and the seal was changed slightly to reflect this. The Latin text around the outside was changed from "Columbiani Collegii" to "Universitatis Columbianae Sigillum." In addition, some text was added to fill up the rest of the open book, since the Greek phrase only took up part of one page. In 1905, after the name changed to the George Washington University, the old seal was replaced by a completely new one.

The original Columbian College seal is currently on display in the Memorabilia Room of Gelman Library.

LETTER FROM THE DEAN

Paul J. Wahlbeck
Dean

Dear Graduates,

Congratulations! Today is a celebration of your hard work, dedication and growth as a scholar and as an individual. Earning your degree from George Washington University's Columbian College of Arts & Sciences is a major milestone, but more importantly, it's a stepping stone to new opportunities. You are now equipped with the knowledge, skills and perspective to make a difference—whether in your community, your career or the world at large.

During your time here, you were engaged in rigorous intellectual and creative pursuits, learning from—and collaborating with—our distinguished faculty, tackling tough questions and embracing new ways of seeing the world. GW's distinctive location, research and networking connections in the nation's capital and beyond enhanced those experiences in ways few other universities can match. It is my hope that these experiences have prepared you for whatever comes next, giving you the confidence to navigate the path ahead and the curiosity to continue to seek new knowledge.

You are graduating at a time of rapid change and complex global challenges. From technological advancements reshaping industries to pressing social and environmental issues, the world needs thoughtful, informed and engaged leaders now more than ever. The education you've received has prepared you not just to adapt, but to contribute—to bring fresh ideas, challenge the status quo and find solutions that make a lasting impact.

As you move forward, I hope you stay connected to the friendships, mentors and experiences that shaped you. You are now part of a strong and supportive alumni network, and no matter where life takes you, your ties to George Washington University and the Columbian College will always remain.

We also hope you'll stay in touch—through alumni events, campus visits, or simply by sharing your journey with us. Our doors are always open, and we look forward to seeing what you accomplish.

I offer my warmest wishes for a future filled with success, purpose and boundless opportunities.

Sincerely,

Paul J. Wahlbeck

The celebration program is meant to be a guide to the ceremony. Please note that the order of individual academic programs crossing the stage may not match exactly the order in this printed program.

Although every effort has been made to ensure its accuracy, the program is not an official record of an individual’s degree.

CELEBRATION SPEAKERS & AWARD RECIPIENTS

FACULTY SPEAKER

Sone-Seeré Burrell

Assistant Professor of Art Therapy

Sone-Seeré Burrell is an assistant professor and clinical placement coordinator in the Art Therapy Program, a program of which she is also a proud 2016 alum. She has over 20 years of experience as a portrait artist, muralist, art educator and art therapist in diverse settings. Through her work and creative endeavors, she is committed to promoting resilience, healing, social justice and advocacy in BIPOC and other underserved and underrepresented communities.

DISTINGUISHED SCHOLAR SPEAKER

Meredith Durand

Master of Arts in Museum Studies, Spring 2025

Since the start of her master's program in fall 2023, Meredith Rose Durand has impressed her instructors and fellow students both within and outside the classroom. Combining her Native Alaskan heritage and desire to serve to her community with a growing knowledge of collections management, preventive conservation and digital asset management, Meredith has worked to promote the ethical use of archival and museum materials related to Indigenous peoples. Her ability to maintain a perfect GPA, while pursuing multiple internships at the Smithsonian and assisting with the ethical return and repatriation of Indigenous objects, exemplifies the best of CCAS graduate studies.

AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE IN THE MENTORING OF MASTER'S STUDENTS

The Award for Excellence in the Mentoring of Master's Students is given to a faculty member nominated by graduate students in the Columbian College of Arts and Sciences. Mentoring and advising are crucial to the intellectual life and career trajectories of graduate students across the arts, sciences and professions. A good mentor is a source of wisdom and expertise, an inspiring role model, a compassionate critic, a sounding board, an advocate and a career counselor. The 2024-2025 Award for Excellence in the Mentoring of Master's Students is presented to Desmond Goss, Assistant Professor of Sociology.

Dear Graduate:

On behalf of the Columbian College National Council for the Arts and Sciences, I offer my congratulations on your significant achievement and welcome you to the George Washington University alumni community. Do not underestimate your accomplishment and the opportunities that await you!

You are now a member of a select group of individuals, bonded by a college with which you will be proudly associated. As an alumna of this historic institution, I fully appreciate the excitement of this very special moment in your life and remember that feeling well. I encourage you to remain involved and, more importantly, engaged with the university as you enter the next phase of your life. Your opportunities to make a difference are endless—from mentoring a student, to becoming an active member of the GW Alumni Association organizing regional and local alumni events, offering services as a career advisor or being a guest lecturer, and providing philanthropic support. Each of these types of engagement offers wonderful opportunities to continue showing support and your pride in the university. And, of course, passing on that GW spirit!

My work as a volunteer on the National Council—which is comprised of alumni, parents and friends who advise the dean of the Columbian College—has been an incredibly rewarding experience for me. I hope you find similar avenues of engagement and opportunities to advance GW's promise and potential.

Finally, it is not lost on anyone that your time here has required significant personal dedication and financial commitment. We are grateful for your investment and hopeful that your degree will lay the groundwork for future success in whatever career you choose.

Again, congratulations! It is both an honor and a pleasure to welcome you as a graduate of the Columbian College of Arts and Sciences, and I hope to see you at a GW event soon.

Raise High!
